An iconic symbol of Canada, the Rocky Mountains embody everything grand about our country's passion for the outdoors.

From a guided tour of Calgary—a modern city with a frontier spirit—to the stunning National Parks and the Rocky Mountains, you'll see a part of Canada that speaks to our passion for adventure.

Day 1

CALGARY

Arrive in Calgary and meet your Tour Director. Explore the city's vibrant financial core, including City Hall, the Calgary Tower, and Olympic Plaza. Plus, get a taste of rodeo culture at Stampede Park.

Day 2-3

CALGARY & THE ROCKIES REGION

Spend more time in Calgary before travelling to the Canadian Rocky Mountains. Visit the country's oldest national park in Banff, established in 1885. Experience Boundary Ranch, Cave and Basin Historic Site, and Banff Upper Hot Springs. Take in the views at Lake Minnewanka, which only improve as you glide up the mountain on the Sulphur Mountain Gondola.

Day 4

THE ROCKIES REGION

Take an excursion to the Athabasca Glacier and get up close with a ride on the snow coach. Pause for photo stops at Lake Louise and Peyto Lake.

Day 5

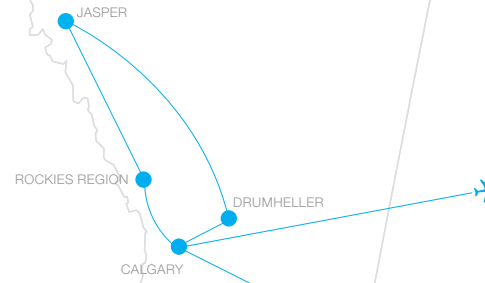

DRUMHELLER AND CALGARY

Travel to Drumheller and enjoy an expertly guided sightseeing tour of Drumheller Valley. Visit the Royal Tyrrell Museum to see Canada's largest collection of dinosaur fossils, then head back to Calgary for the evening.

Day 6

CALGARY

Visit the Glenbow Museum, Calgary's must-see art and history museum, before boarding your flight back home.

YOUR EXPERIENCE INCLUDES

Airfare & transportation, hotels, regional-style meals, full-time Tour Director, guided sightseeing, entrances, and experiential learning

California Panorama

San Francisco, Los Angeles, San Diego (ext.)

6–8 days eftours.ca/cpn

Go California dreamin' as you explore the Golden State from north to south.

Explore San Francisco, the "City by the Bay," and bask in the bright lights of Hollywood as you travel to Los Angeles, one of America's most famous destinations.

Day 1

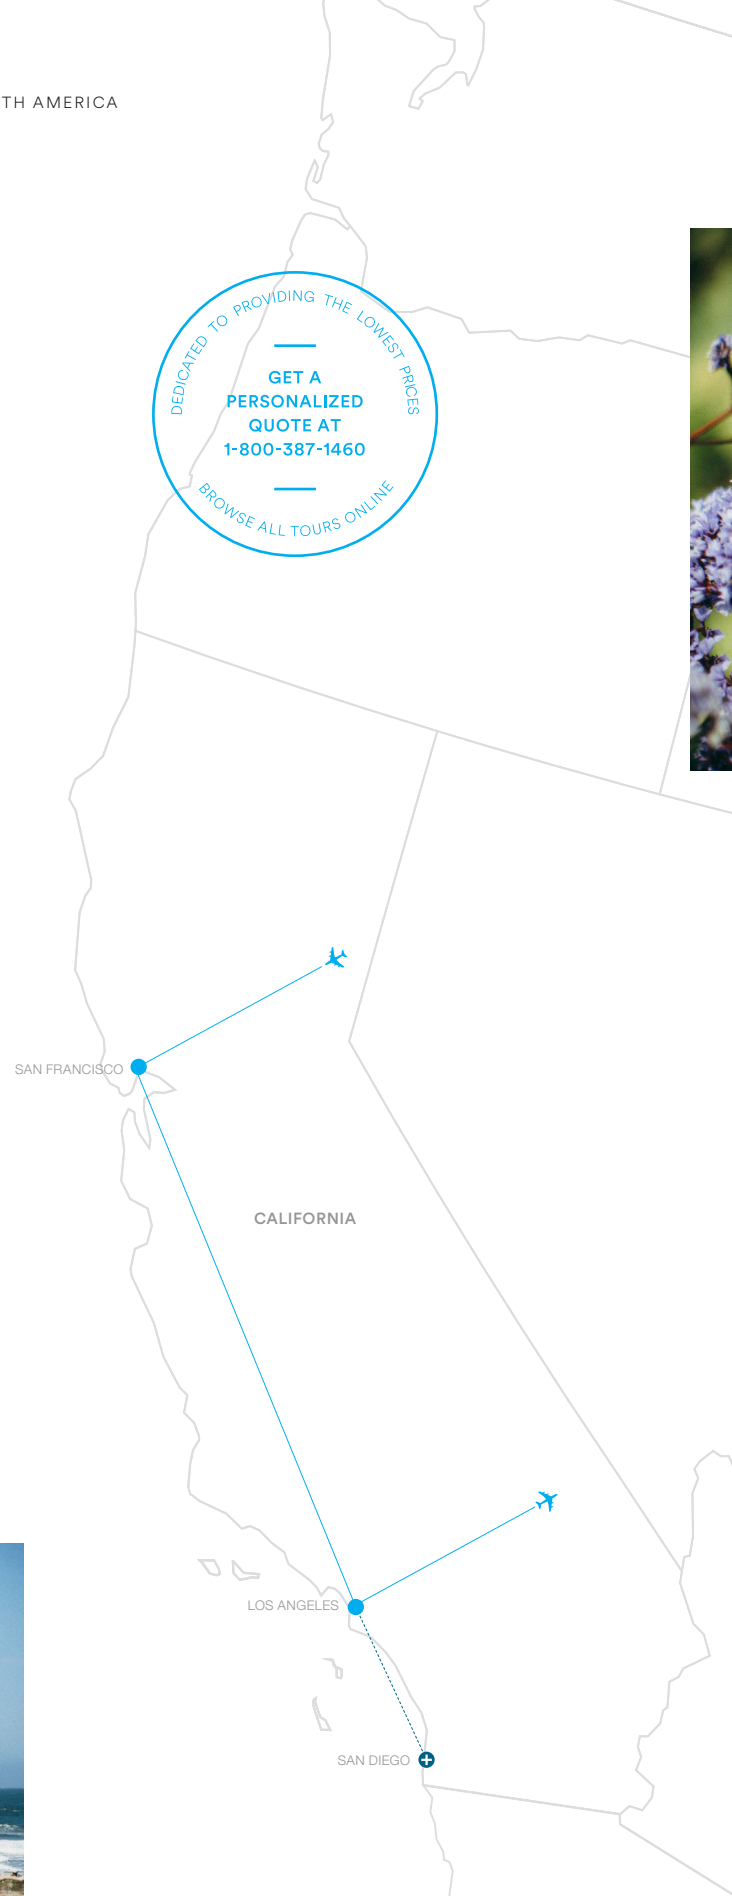

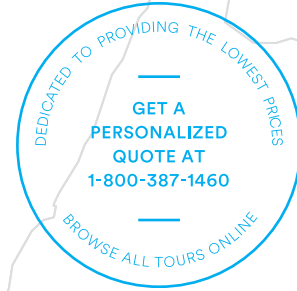

SAN FRANCISCO

Arrive in San Francisco, meet your Tour Director, and take a cable car ride to glimpse views of the city.

Day 2

SAN FRANCISCO

Get a firsthand look at the diverse cultural history of this city, which was propelled by the rapid growth of its first gold rush in 1849. Stop by the Golden Gate Bridge, then follow your tour guide to see Pier 39, Chinatown, Lombard Street, Pacific Heights, Golden Gate Park, Haight-Ashbury District, and Twin Peaks. Take a tour of Alcatraz or enjoy a San Francisco Bay cruise (Alcatraz tour subject to availability).

Day 3–4

LOS ANGELES

Buckle up for a journey to Los Angeles along the state's beautiful coast. Once you're in La-La Land, spot the famed Hollywood sign from the Hollywood Bowl. Then, take a guided tour of L.A.'s Star Walk of Fame, TCL Chinese Theatre, Hollywood Boulevard, Sunset Boulevard, Rodeo Drive, and the Original Farmers Market. Head to the coast and visit either Venice Beach or Santa Monica Pier.

Day 5

LOS ANGELES

Movie lovers and drama queens, rejoice! Spend the day at Universal Studios Hollywood, followed by dinner on the Universal CityWalk.

Day 6

RETURN HOME OR ADD AN EXTENSION

Depart for home on Day 6 or extend your tour. Add two days in San Diego, where you'll catch some sun at Balboa Park, Coronado Island, La Jolla, Pacific Beach, Old Town San Diego, and other hot spots.

Hot springs, volcanic craters, and subarctic fauna—Iceland will almost make you feel like you're on another planet.

Between the capital of Reykjavík and the southern region of Hvalsöllum, you'll get to experience Iceland's world-famous geological wonders in the Golden Circle.

DAYS 1–2

REYKJAVÍK

Arrive in San Francisco, meet your Tour Director, and take a cable car ride to glimpse views of the city.

Day 3

HVOLSÖLLUR AREA

Travel south to Hvalsöllum to witness the breathtaking geology of Iceland. Home to Iceland's iconic natural wonders, travel around the Golden Circle and see Gullfoss Falls, Geysir, and Thingvellir National Park. Visit a geothermal greenhouse and Icelandic horse stable.

Day 4

HVOLSÖLLUR AREA

Visit the Seljalandsfoss and Skógarfoss waterfalls. Legend has it that Prasi Þórólfsson, the first Viking settler in the area, buried a treasure in a cave behind Skógarfoss. Visit the Skógarfoss Folk Museum, then travel to Vík's black-sand beaches. Take the coolest walk of your life—literally—on Sólheimajökull Glacier.

Day 5

HVOLSÖLLUR & REYKJAVÍK

Discover Iceland's state-of-the-art Lava Centre to learn about earthquakes and volcanic activity. Before travelling back to Reykjavík, experience the natural hot streams and geothermal springs in the area.

Day 6–7

REYKJAVÍK

Take an excursion to the Álfanes peninsula. See Bessastaðir, official residence of the president, and continue on to Hafnarfjörður—home to the annual Viking Festival—and Lake Kleifarvatn. See the natural activity at Krísvík geothermal field, then head to Blue Lagoon spa for an unforgettable hot spring bath.
